

To Whom it may concern,

As an effort to encourage environmentally friendly work practices we use B100 in our fleet of commercial vans. We believe this is an unethical choice and most likely another example of large petroleum companies applying the right pressures to the right people.

We would be very upset if this decision was made to ban BD blends higher than 5%.

Thanks and Regards,