

REGULATION CHECKLIST

FOR KEY THREATENING PROCESS NOMINATION FOR LISTING UNDER THE EPBC ACT

Name of Nomination:
Date of Receipt:
Nominator:

R7.03 - Notices inviting nominations for an assessment period	Yes/No	Nomination question no.
(2a) Is the nomination made in writing or electronically.
(2b) Is the nomination is of a length, size and form that can be:
(i) understood by the public; and
(ii) published on the Internet.
(3a) Does the nomination include the name of each person making the nomination (nominee)?		Q.6
(3b) If applicable, is the name of the organisation the each nominee represents included?		Q.7
(3c) For each nominee are the following details provided?
(i) postal address; and		Q.8
(ii) telephone number; and		Q.8
(iii) email address, if applicable.		Q.8
(3d) If the Minister has determined a conservation theme as a priority theme for the assessment period, is a statement indicating how the nomination fits within the conservation theme included?		Q.3

R7.06 - Nominations of a threatening process
Scientific Information that MUST be included in the nomination
When checking whether the Regulations below have been satisfied, please use the following:
YR – Information provided has been referenced
NR – Information provided has not been referenced
ST – No information provided, statement has been supplied indicating what is not available
NO – No information provided
For key threatening process nominations, information must be provided as per Regulation 7.06 (below) and the nomination must indicate the source of information and when the information became available. (R7.03(3h)).
If information is not available for each of the Regulations below, because of lack of scientific data or analysis, a statement is required identifying the data or analysis that is not available (R7.06(2)).
Note: the regulation number is at the front of the question, these are not necessarily in numerical order, the questions are in order of how they appear on the nomination form to make checking easier.	YR/NR/ST/NO or N/A	Nomination question no.
(1a) Name for the threatening process		Q.1
(1b) Description of the threatening process that distinguishes it from any other threatening process by reference to		Q.9
(i) its biological and non-biological components; and		Q.9
(ii) the processes by which those components interact, if known		Q.9
(1c) the identity of any species		Q.10i
(i) that is not a species listed in a category in the list mentioned in section 178 of the Act, and
(ii) that, by reference to the criteria prescribed in regulation 7.01, could become eligible for listing in 1 of those categories, other than the category of conservation dependent, because of the threatening process		Q.10

NOTE: A person has relevant expertise if the person has worked with, or is a published author on, the class or species nominated (R7.04(4)).
(1d) The identity of any ecological community.
(i) that is not an ecological community listed in the category in the list mentioned in section 181 of the Act, and		Q.11
(iii) that, by reference to the criteria prescribed in regulation 7.02, could become eligible for listing in 1 of those categories because of the threatening process		Q.11
(1e) The identity of any species:
(i) that is a species listed in a category in the list mentioned in section 178 of the Act, and;		Q.12
(ii) that, by reference to the criteria prescribed in regulation 7.01, the person making the nomination considers will become eligible to be listed in a category representing a higher degree of endangerment because of the threatening process		Q.12
(1f) The identity of any ecological community:
(i) that is an ecological community listed in the category in the list mentioned in section 181 of the Act, and		Q.13
(ii) that, by reference to the criteria prescribed in regulation 7.02, the person making the nomination considers will become eligible to be listed in a category representing a higher degree of endangerment because of the threatening process		Q.13
(1g) The identity of 2 or more species:
(i) that are listed in the list mentioned in section 178 of the Act, other than in the category of conservation dependant, and		Q.14
(ii) that, by reference to the criteria prescribed in regulation 7.01, the person making the nomination considers to be adversely affected by the threatening process		Q.14
(1h) The identity of 2 or more ecological communities
(i) that are listed in the list mentioned in section 181 of the Act, and		Q.15
(ii) that, by reference to the criteria prescribed in regulation 7.02, the person making the nomination considers to be adversely affected by the threatening process		Q.15
Does the nomination meet the Regs?	Yes	No
Does the nomination need more information?	Yes	No
Comments:
Officer:
Date:		