

SWST strongly rejects the TCA's branding of us as an extremist group. Our organization is made up of volunteers from a diversity of backgrounds with a genuine concern for serious threat posed to Tasmania's old growth forests, in a time where environmental awareness is paramount to the healthy future of our society.