

Nourlangie region

Burrunggui (Boor-oon-goy) is the Gun-djeihmi name for the upper section of Nourlangie. Anbangbang is the name for the lower section of the rock and surrounding area.

1

2

IF YOU HAVE MORE TIME...

Bubba (Boop-bar) walk: (Dry season only). Starts at the Muirella Park Camping Area, featuring a 3.5 km circular walk through several wetland habitats. Allow 2 hours.

Mirrai (Mirr-eye) Lookout walk: A moderately difficult 2 km return walk to a platform lookout on top of Mount Cahill. A steep climb. Allow 1.5 hours.

Barrk bushwalk: Branching off the Nourlangie lookout track, just past the main gallery, this is a difficult 12 km walk through the sandstone country of Nourlangie, past the Nanguluwur art gallery and back to the Nourlangie car park. See the Barrk Walk Park Note available from Bowali Visitor Centre. Allow 6 to 8 hours.

Please read the crocodile information on page 48.

1

The rock art galleries of Nourlangie

2

Nourlangie and Anbangbang Billabong

ACCOMMODATION

Kakadu Culture Camp: Deluxe safari tent accommodation with local Aboriginal family at Muirella Park. Stay includes bush bistro, shared bathroom facilities. Reservations essential. See page 29 for booking information.

Managed Camping Area: Check seasonal access. $10 fee (adults) collected on site during the dry season. Muirella Park has showers, toilets and is a no generator zone.

Bush Camping Area: Check seasonal access. 4WD recommended. Drinking water is not available. $5 fee (adults) collection box. Basic toilet facilities beyond Muirella Park at Sandy Billabong.

MAIN ATTRACTIONS

Nourlangie: Features a 1.5 km circular walk that takes you past an ancient Aboriginal shelter and several outstanding art sites. A moderately steep climb to Gun-warddehwardde Lookout provides impressive views of Kakadu's escarpment and Nourlangie. During the dry season, rangers provide informative talks several times a day. See the What's On Guide for details. Open 8am until sunset.

Kakadu Culture Camp: Operates during the dry season at Muirella Park. Night spotlight boat cruise on Djarradjin Billabong with interactive cultural activities. Bookings 1800 811 633.

Anbangbang (Arn-barng-barng) Billabong: (Check wet season access). A 2.5 km dry season circular walk with Nourlangie forming an impressive backdrop, this is one of Kakadu's most attractive billabongs. Allow one hour.

Nawurlandja (Now-oo-larn-ja) Lookout walk: A 600 m climb up a moderately steep slope offers views of the escarpment, Nourlangie and Anbangbang Billabong. Allow 40 minutes.

Nanguluwur (Narng-oo-loo-war) art site walk: A 3.4 km return walk through woodlands leads to a quiet Aboriginal rock art site. Allow two hours.

Gubara (Goo-bar-rar) Pools walk: (Check wet season access). A 6 km return walk past sandstone cliffs to shady monsoon forest pools. A pleasant place to spend the heat of the day. Allow four hours.