

Australian Government
Australian National Botanic Gardens

MEDIA RELEASE

13 February 2009

Diversity through music and dance at the Botanic Gardens

The Australian National Botanic Gardens is joining in Canberra's celebration of diversity by inviting visitors to experience a truly multicultural performance, Music and Dances of Neighbours, on Sunday 15 February from 1.30pm – 3.30pm.

What better place to enjoy authentic music and dance from Australia, New Zealand, Bulgaria and Greece, than in the lush green shade of the Education lawn at the Gardens?

The Gardens' Director, Anne Duncan said the Gardens is pleased to be involved in such a popular Canberra event for the second year in a row.

"The groups are dynamic and exciting to watch. They will take the audience on a cultural journey of song and dance to their respective countries," Ms Duncan said.

Performers include the ACT Torres Strait Islander Dance Group, the Maori group Te Rere O Te Tarakakao, Ensemble Dusha Balkana and the Canberra Hellenic Dancers.

A printed program is available which includes information about the groups, the floral emblems from each country and greetings in the four languages.

Speakers to open the event include MLA for Ginninderra Mary Porter AM, Gardens Director Anne Duncan, Ellnor Grassby who is Patron of the Office of Multicultural Affairs, and Lillian Kaneef who is President of the Bulgarian Australian Association "Rodina".

The event is supported by the ACT Government's Multicultural Grants Program. It is presented by the Bulgarian-Australian Association "Rodina", the Embassy of the Republic of Bulgaria, the ACT Office of Multicultural Affairs and the Australian National Botanic Gardens.

What:	Music and Dances of Neighbours
When:	Sunday 15 February
Time:	1.30 - 3.30 pm
Where:	Education lawn, Australian National Botanic Gardens
Price:	Free entry
Info:	Visitor Centre on 6250 9540

Media contact: Sabrina Sonntag 6250 9538